

"As I Watch You Sleeping"
Written by Sheryl Trowbridge, Kendallville, Indiana

As I watch you sleeping,
my problems seem so small.
The rewards you have to offer me,
are so big and tall.

As I watch you sleeping,
I realize just how great your accomplishments are.
I know how much you struggle to have made it this far.

As I watch you sleeping,
I can't imagine how my life would be without you.
Even through the hard times
I'd be lost without you.

As I watch you sleeping,
I see just how much you have brought into my life.
All the joys and happiness,
all the wonder and excitement.

As I watch you sleeping,
I am overcome with such love.
Your sweetness and happiness, are something I can't get enough of.

As I watch you sleeping,
I think just how lucky I am.
To be the mother of such a beautiful little boy. (or girl)

As I watch you sleeping,
all of my worries seem to melt away.
I know that no matter what happens,
together we can make it through another day.

To Stevie, my little buddy and my precious little boy.
With all my love, Mommy
